AGENDA POINT

NOTES

1) Pupil Voice

Representatives: Jack Pearson, Lucy Litwin, George Messer and Ruby Davidson.

Achieved this term:

- Evaluated the lockers and handwriting pens and found that both have been successful.
- Children in Need and cake sale raised £651.55
- Shoebox Appeal - donated boxes to help children in other countries receive gifts.
- We focussed on 'Safety Around the School'. We identified concerns on maps of the school and carried out tours. We listed our concerns and met with Mr Denchfield to solve the problems. Examples included raising the bar in the cloakroom for the new lockers, teacher positions in the playground, broken ceiling lights, rubbish, thorns/fences and the bicycle area.

Aim for next term:

- Comic Relief
- Spellathon
- Maths Rocks for improving times tables

2) Eco Committee

Representatives: Zac Cooper and Jasmine Whiston

Achieved this term:

- Identified that the plant pots around the school need work to improve the appeal of the school.
- Written letters to B&Q and Homebase about equipment and tools.

Aim for next term:

- Planting
