1. Update from Mr Denchfield	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Two sets of football goals ordered for the KS2 playground● Photos taken after celebration for nominated sunshine and learning behaviour children to go on Twitter● Music is currently on trial in the lunch hall● To investigate Team Point ideas
2. Reading for Pleasure	Feedback Book Types <ul style="list-style-type: none">● Children discussed that they were told that their peers like to read lots of different books from poetry, jokes, picture, and stories through to information books. They like to read books by different authors.● Places included: train, library, garden, bedroom, living room and on a plane. Location

- Children like to read in lots of different places but most importantly they need to be comfortable. They loved the ideas of big beanbags in a space with calming music.

Improvements

- Children would like a wider range of book types to read.
- They would like a reading room or space.
- Possibly a reading challenge like they have with the library over the summer holidays.
- Doors to the library.
- Chairs in the library
- Beanbags around the school or in classrooms.
- An area at break and lunchtime to read.
- Reading club
- Reading partners possibly in different classes or years.
- Competitions
- Twitter

3. Children in Need

- Friday 15th November
- Children in pyjamas for the day.
- Pupil Voice to help at the cake sale from 3.30pm – 4.15pm. Parents are being contacted by the office.
