Squid Game: Advice for Parents

Dear Parents/Carers,

I am writing with regards to the Netflix series, Squid Game. It has been brought to our attention that some of our children may have seen the age 15 - rated series either directly or from clips being posted on other social media sites such as TikTok and YouTube.

The series follows a group of adults completing innocent looking playground games however, these contain scenes of disturbing violence. We are aware of children re-creating such games in the playground which is being addressed in school but felt it important to also make parents aware.

The following link from National Online Safety provides additional information and advice for parents: Squid Game Parental Advice.

Please do not hesitate to contact me should you wish to discuss this further.

Kind regards,

Katherine Hart
